CUT THE BILL TO $103.

Lawyer Wilder's Services to Kendall Appraised by a Jury. When Chief - Justice Ehrlich, of the City Court, had finished to-day cutting down the bill of William R. Wilder fo legal services against George H. Kendall of the New York Bank Note Company there was only $325 left of the amount Wilder, in taking an appeal in a case Wilder, in taking an appeal in a case, had not put a certificate of the General Term in the appeal book and the case was thrown out. Judge Ehrlich held that Wilder could not ask for pay for those services, and was liable for some of the costs. Then the case was narrowed down to $103, which was the only claim that was permitted to go to the jury. The charges that Wilder had compired with Russell Sage. William R. Grace and others to ruin the New York Bank Note Company was thrown out because the defendant had not asked for any specific damages because of this conspiracy.

The jury brought in a verdict ford $103 in favor of the plaintiff.
